

PROTOCOL

based on the results of business visit of delegation of The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University (Russia, Yoshkar-Ola) at Concord University (West Virginia, the USA) that took place from 21st to 29th of March 2017.

The business visit of delegation of The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University (Russia, Yoshkar-Ola) that took place from 21st to 29th of March at Concord University (West Virginia, the USA) represents the practicum for 4 students and 2 graduate students. The head of a delegation (the head of practicum) is professor, the Dean of The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University Shalaev Vladimir took course on the subject "Economics, management, financial and project activities in the quantity of 80 hours that promotes internalization of university education on the example of and Concord University (the USA).

The participants of practicum visited special places devoted to the studying of Tourism and hospitality and Social work at Concord University in West Virginia. In a point of fact the students went to parks, outdoor recreational resources, cultural centers and mountain hotels of West Virginia. The group visited the capital of the state – Charleston, its museums and central elite G. Washington School. The students took part in lectures and courses in classes of Tourism, Social work, Cultural geography and politics. Every student made educational and cultural presentations according to his / her major.

In the course of the practicum there were organized meetings with the President and the Vice-President of Concord University. Summarizing the results of visit, the parts are satisfied with mutually beneficial project that lasts more than 10 years. In conclusion the parts agreed about the following:

1. Continue annual student and professor exchange between closely related departments of two universities.
2. Continue educational exchange programs for students of closely related departments up to one year
3. Continue the project of universities support of partnership between school N 7 in Yoshkar-Ola and G. Washington School in Charleston.
4. Continue the science article exchange, which includes Science Magazine Socio Time, collected volume of science conferences, including international Vavilov Reading in The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University
5. Return visit of Concord University students and professors to The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University in the latter half of may 2017.

The Dean of The Department of Social Technologies in Volga Tech State University
Dr. phil., professor,

Shalaev Vladimir
29/03/2017

Concord University
The director of tourism programs, Dr.

Roy Rampton